Taster Sessions last 1 hour 30 minutes and are designed to give you a flavour of team building exercises and a chance to develop teamwork, confidence and leadership skills. They can be designed around your needs and will usually include 4 different activities each attempted by teams of 6. Each activity will focus on a different element of team work or leadership, with the exact activities being discussed with you prior to the event, and will include a clear brief from the instructor at the beginning. A period of time is included for a full debrief at the end of each activity so that each team can learn and build from their experiences. All safety equipment is provided and the activities can be tailored to any age or level.

The following packages can be booked as stand alone half day courses or you could combine 2 for a full day training

The Power of Command is a half day team building package that incorporates activities and challenges specifically focussed on identifying the difficulties of being in charge, getting the best out of your team, developing clear and concise instructions and understanding different styles of leadership. The exact activities will be discussed with you prior to the event so that you are happy with the focus for your team. Our experienced instructors will deliver clear briefs prior to each activity and full debriefs after each activity to ensure teams highlight their strengths and weaknesses and can work and improve areas of their teamwork and leadership throughout the day. All safety equipment is provided and the activities can be tailored to any age or level.

Icebreaking Madness is a half day team building package that incorporates activities and challenges specifically focussed on getting to know each other, learning new things about each other, building new teams and partnerships and identifying each others strengths and weaknesses. The exact activities will be discussed with you prior to the event so that you are happy with the focus for your team. Our experienced instructors will deliver clear briefs prior to each activity and full debriefs after each activity to ensure teams highlight their strengths and weaknesses and can work and improve areas of their teamwork and leadership throughout the day. All safety equipment is provided and the activities can be tailored to any age or level.

Delegation Matters is a half day team building package that incorporates activities and challenges specifically focussed on identifying team strengths and weaknesses, employing the team efficiently, understanding and adopting the 'Keep it simple' (KIS) principle, identifying the difficulties of being in charge and understanding that you can't do it all yourself. The exact activities will be discussed with you prior to the event so that you are happy with the focus for your team. Our experienced instructors will deliver clear briefs prior to each activity and full debriefs after each activity to ensure teams highlight their strengths and weaknesses and can work and improve areas of their teamwork and leadership throughout the day. All safety equipment is provided and the activities can be tailored to any age or level.

There's No 'I' in Team is a half day team building package that incorporates activities and challenges specifically focussed on using team strengths, understanding team weaknesses, knowing and adapting to how you can best contribute to the team and the leaderless team. The exact activities will be discussed with you prior to the event so that you are happy with the focus for your team. Our experienced instructors will deliver clear briefs prior to each activity and full debriefs after each activity to ensure teams highlight their strengths and weaknesses and can work and improve areas of their teamwork and leadership throughout the day. All safety equipment is provided and the activities can be tailored to any age or level.

Communication is the Key is a half day team building package that incorporates activities and challenges specifically focussed on identifying the importance of communication, opening communication channels, regaining control when communication breaks down and communication through other means. The exact activities will be discussed with you prior to the event so that you are happy with the focus for your team. Our experienced instructors will deliver clear briefs prior to each activity and full debriefs after each activity to ensure teams highlight their strengths and weaknesses and can work and improve areas of their teamwork and leadership throughout the day. All safety equipment is provided and the activities can be tailored to any age or level.

The 7 P's is a half day team building package that incorporates activities and challenges specifically focussed on the planning and preparation stages of tasks, building on lessons learnt, improving results through experience and developing standard procedures to cope with the unexpected. The exact activities will be discussed with you prior to the event so that you are happy with the focus for your team. Our experienced instructors will deliver clear briefs prior to each activity and full debriefs after each activity to ensure teams highlight their strengths and weaknesses and can work and improve areas of their teamwork and leadership throughout the day. All safety equipment is provided and the activities can be tailored to any age or level.

Raft Building is a half day activity ideal for combining elements of team building, construction and watermanship skills. Each team will be given a number of barrels, planks and ropes and the time required to build a raft that can transport the entire team across a course without falling apart! Expert help will set the teams on the way with demonstrations of the knots and techniques required and each member will be given all the equipment required to be safe whilst on the water. Participants do not have to be swimmers or water confident to attend this activity but should usually be over 14 years old. This is an ideal accompaniment to another of our half day courses in order to apply skills in an enjoyable way.

Coracle Building is a full day team building and wood work activity that gives teams the chance to build a coracle from scratch. The teams will be given the materials, tools and instruction throughout but the build is down to them. Attention to detail is important to maintain its structure and integrity on the water. Every participant will then be able to paddle the coracle around a set course, after being given some basic paddling instruction. Participants do not have to be swimmers or water confident to attend this activity but should usually be over 14 years old. All safety equipment is provided.
